Just In Case Incidentally And So On, Etc., Etc.

BY CHRIS ELLIOTT

Give it another week and the mock election fever will probably die down to a tepid chill. It takes about seven days for second-guessers to get political grandstand quarterbacking off their minds. . . . Speaking of second guessers, the man who came nearest to calling the election odds correctly was the man who lost . . . Don Martin, Democrat Chairman predicted a 3-to-1 Republican victory early in the campaign when the going looked toughest . . . later he dropped the odds to 3-to-2 as James Allen, Charles Coil and others rallied to his aid . . . Actually 73 per cent of the students went along with Don Rusk and Mr. Taft.

Possibly it was Allen who made the most interesting speech of the campaign . . . almost sounded convincing. But, just for the fun of it, this department wonders why the Student Council prexy omitted names of Abe Lincoln and Silent Cal Coolidge when he spoke of graft in GOP circles.

According to some, Mr. Taft isn't the best grade of presidential timber. Maybe not, but as far as we can see "Mr. Republican" can't be any worse than Harry S. . . . and he might prove himself to be a whale of a lot better.

Wouldn't you know it, Martin says the women swung the election, and we whole heartedly agree . . . It seems they still have the last word . . . And there are those who still persist in calling this a "man's world!"

Just In Case You're Interested: A letter from Cliff Seawel, former Harding dramatic demon who now resides at David Lipscomb College, Nashville, Tennessee, brings with it regards to those "he left behind." . . . G. J. Wheeler's initials stand for General Jackson—Andrew, that is . . . Ernie Wilkerson is the proud papa of a boy, Mark Allan . . . little rascal weighed in at something over seven pounds . . . Mark is being held over indefinitely at the White House Cafe under management of Jayne Wilkerson, the boss.

Incidentally: The "I Have Voted! Have You?" tags, displayed over the campus this week, were conceived by the National Education Program to get more people out to the polls . . . The mock election was the third time they have been used . . . A rather belated tip of the Elliott hat to the boys who helped on election day: Norman Kee, Walter Nelms, Bob Furell, Steve Todd, Al Potete, and any others who pinched hit at lunch time . . . Don't see how Clark Stevens and his family put up with all-nite political bull sessions in West Dorm.

Couldn't help laughing in Dr. Mattox's Bible class when he swung momentarily from Martin Luther to Truman and Taft . . . Hear one Dr. J. D. Bales and Professor Andy Ritchie were briefly interested, too.

By The Way: The new arc lights in Vet Village sure make traveling easier on pedestrians . . . Understand couples are attempting to go out after dark again without fear of falling into a sink hole . . . Hated to hear about Reid Bush's accident on the tennis court . . . just goes to show you what happens when you get mixed up in a racket. . . . Never heard so much talk in the village about utility bills . . . one couple got a utility bill for fourteen smackers last month . . . Harvey (Boss) Arnold was stuck for something like 17 fish . . . High cost of living, maybe?

Leon Gleason is the owner of an unusual canine. The dog's name, no less, is "Lassie." Seems the big collie has been trained to protect people from automobiles . . . Quite interesting to watch "Lassie" nuzzle grade school children off the road when speeding drivers whiz down the street . . . Wonder if MGM has looked around these parts lately?

Taft Elected President

Late Democratic Rally Fails

A last minute Democratic rally featuring addresses by Student Council President Jimmy Allen and Senior Class head John Davis, apparently were to no avail Wednesday night as the campus Taft forces swept their candidate into the president's seat Thursday.

The rally, headed by Democratic chairman Don Martin, and emceed by Sammy Floyd, was termed a success by Martin. He said, in connection with the rally's effect on voters, "I feel that this (the rally) has gained large support among the Truman camp."

Davis, in his speech, defended the Truman administration's policy on the "common man" issue. "Truman has always stood for . . . the common man and labor," he stated. The good policies of previous Democrat presidents were also brought out.

Allen opened his address with a plea for conscientious voting. He then defended the Truman policy in Korea, the administration's "clean up campaign," and the party stand of non-Socialism. This was followed by a verbal blasting of the Taft policy in foreign affairs and the weakness of his proposed platform.

Grade school girls, Donna Bethenhausen and Gail Fowler contribute to the Penny Drive. Gerald Long looks on.

I Was Hungry and Ye Fed Me

Pennies Helping Build Negro Home

" . . . for I was hungry, and ye gave me to eat; I was thirsty, and ye gave me to drink; I was a stranger, and ye took me in; naked and ye clothed me . . . " (Matthew 25:35-36)

Just before Christmas, in the mid-Arkansas town of Weldon, three little Negro children were looking for a home, but none could be found. The colored Church of Christ in Weldon heard of this and decided to do something about it. After discovering that there was no colored Christian home for the care of homeless colored children they started plans for the construction of one. The idea quickly caught on and within a month other churches and individuals began soliciting the necessary funds. One of the early workers was Harding's Kenneth Childs, who has as his present project the filling of a five gallon jug in the Student Center lobby.

Other methods of raising the funds by Childs is the writing of letters all over the United States, and the printing of articles concerning the home in nation-wide church magazines.

The home is to be named The Southern Christian Colored Children's Home, and it's construction will begin within three months. It's location is to be about ten miles north of Conway on Highway 64, in the Meniffee communi-

Dean Sears Announces Changes In Selective Service Amendments

Notice To Bison Staff

All members of the Bison staff will meet tonight at 6 o'clock in the Bison office to have pictures made for the Petit Jean. It is essential that all members be at this meeting.

Dean L. C. Sears this week announced some changes regarding the 1951 amendments to the Selective Service Act.

Originally, students pursuing a full-time course might receive a postponement of induction. Under the amendments such postponements are called deferments and are not optional but binding upon local boards.

That is, any student pursuing a full-time course, who is ordered for induction will, if he has never been deferred as a student, be deferred in class 1-S until the end of his academic year, but he can receive only one such deferment. Later deferments placing students in class 1-S are granted upon a different basis.

The 1-S classification cannot technically be granted until after a student is ordered for induction. He should have the dean of the college give his local board official notice that he is a full-time student doing satisfactory work and that such work actually commenced prior to the date the order for induction was mailed. The board then automatically places him in 1-S until the end of his academic year.

There are two classes of deferments. 1-S is for freshmen or others who have never previously requested deferment. It can only be granted once. The 11-S rating is based upon either scholastic level in college or upon a score of 70 in the Selective Service College Qualification tests. It may be granted each following year until the student finishes his college or graduate course.

If a student is denied a 11-S deferment by his local board, he may appeal to the State Appeal Board within ten days. If it is denied there with a split decision, he may then appeal to the National Board.

Mirrors, New Equipment Purchased For Dorms

Full length mirrors were installed in each room of Patti Cobb Hall and new kitchen equipment purchased for Cathcart Hall the latter part of this week with money donated by the Freedom Forum conferees last fall. A new clock for the foyer of Cathcart was also installed.

Choice of how to spend the money was made by the girls of both dormitories, working with the House Council, Mrs. Inez Pickens, dean of women, stated, and approved by Dr. George S. Benson.

1951 Petit Jean Rated

The 1951 Petit Jean received a certificate of rating this week from the National Scholastic Press Association, Editor Phil Perkins announced today. Rating received by the book was 2nd class, or "good".

Editor of the 1951 Petit Jean was Ann Morris of Tusculumbia, Ala.

Use Of Guides Stressed At Two Day Library Course

A two-day course for English, speech and journalism majors in the use of library books was climaxed Thursday with a lecture by Librarian Annie May Alston. The course included instruction in finding material for research papers and manuscripts with special emphasis on the use of guides to periodicals indexes.

Students were assigned topics on which to find information. Miss Alston also expressed appreciation for student cooperation in the suggestion of books to be purchased.

"Some students still do not understand the system," Miss Alston said.

She urged students who have suggestions to make to see her at the library for an explanation. Two novels by Thomas Wolfe have been purchased because of student demand, she said.

The novels, "Of Time and the River" and "Look Homeward, Angel" will be available for student use soon she said.

Foreign Students Speak To Churches

Harding foreign students Kazuo Kusano of Japan, George Chung of Malay, and Victor Loyd of Africa, along with Dr. F. W. Mattox as spokesman, will journey Sunday to speak at towns in the Northeastern parts of the state.

They are scheduled to speak at the Church of Christ in Paragould Sunday morning, the Leachville Church of Christ in the afternoon, returning to Paragould to speak Sunday night.

According to Dr. Mattox, the students will give reports of the Churches in foreign countries—each his own country. They will describe the work being done there and discuss the possibilities for further Christianization. Each student will also tell of his own individual conversation and the determining factors that brought it about.

This same group, accompanied by Gottfried Reichel of Germany, will speak at the Izard Street Church of Christ in Little Rock, Friday, Feb. 6.

Student Director Conducts Band

Ken Noland, college Freshman from Morrilton, made his first public appearance as student director Monday night, Jan. 28, at the final of the invitational basketball tournament held in Rhodes Memorial Field House.

Eddie Baggett, band Director, stated that Noland had complete charge of the band during the two-hour performance.

Baggett mentioned that Noland will also conduct as Student Director in the forthcoming March 7 concert.

Noland was selected Student Director of the band, Harding's first, earlier in the fall quarter of school.

Senator Wins With 299 Votes

Truman Polls Only 109 Ballots—Rusk Elated Over Victory

Ohio Senator Robert Alphonso Taft Thursday night was elected the thirty-third United States President—and by a landslide majority in the Bison sponsored mock election.

Taft polled 299 of 408 votes cast and ousted Democratic candidate President Harry S. Truman. Truman polled 109 votes.

Of 567 students enrolled here 418 paraded to the polls to elect the man whom many political experts said "couldn't win," and brought an end, if the college indicates southern sentiment, to overwhelming Democratic sympathy.

Nine Students Judge

Actually, 418 ballots were cast, but 10 were found void for failure of the voters to mark them correctly, judges said.

A panel of nine students and a faculty member tabulated the returns and Democratic Chairman Don Martin conceded defeat when Student Center votes began falling "Mr. Republican's" way.

The election marked the first of its kind on the campus and highlighted five hectic weeks of campaigning on the part of Martin and GOP Chairman Don Rusk.

Joy Among Republicans

Campaigning included two rallies, informal speeches, door-to-door canvassing, parades and literature handouts.

Joy reigned in the Republican camp Thursday night. Rusk was swept away from well wishers and carried to a private party off the campus.

Later Rusk told reporters gleefully, "We worked hard and presented the facts to the students. They elected Taft because they thought he was the 'man of the hour'."

"But," he said smiling, "I'm glad the election is over. Two more weeks of it and the faculty would have thrown me out for falling grades."

Martin Still Smiling

If Martin was down in the dumps he didn't show it. "We did our best to re-elect the president but 'pressure' and ill-sentiment was against us," he said.

Martin added, "I want to wish Mr. Rusk and the Republican Party the best. They beat us fair and square."

The new president is the son of former president William Howard Taft. Bob Taft attended Harvard Law School and Yale University. Upon graduating he began practicing law at Cincinnati, his home, and later went into politics as a precinct worker.

Taft Former Representative He served three terms in the Ohio House of Representatives, became Speaker, then served a term in the State Senate. In 1938 he wrested the Republican nomination to the United States Senate from another GOP candidate and fought his way to an election.

He has been reelected to the Senate twice making a total of 13 years of service. Some members of the Senate call him the most potent spokesman of the Republican Party and he is the co-ordinator of the holly contested Taft-Hartly Law.

"Couldn't Win": Experts Thrice political experts labeled Taft the man who "couldn't win"

Big Mistake Was Ignoring Woman Vote Says Martin

BY LIN WRIGHT

Disappointment hung over the Democratic camp today as party members reshaped the defeat of their candidate, President Harry S. Truman, who was ousted by the Republican party and Ohio Senator Robert A. Taft.

"The woman vote swung the election," Democratic Chairman Don Martin said. "If we made one big mistake it was overlooking the woman vote. Nearly every woman on the campus voted—Republican," the little Chicagoan said.

"Disappointed? Yes, of course," Martin said. "While I thought all the time the Democratic Party's chances were slim, I also thought it would be much closer than the results showed."

"Under the circumstances, though, I believe we accomplished something," Martin said.

Martin congratulated Don Rusk on their "impressive victory."

"There are no regrets on my part. We did the best we could and cards fell the other way. Even at the start, lack of organization hurt us. Shakeups in planning and committee appointments slowed us down a great deal. We were just hitting our stride when election date rolled around—by then it was too late," he said.

In answer to questions regarding what kind of president Taft will make, Martin said, "If Taft, unlike most politicians, fulfills the promises he has made then, only then, will the United States experience the type of government students here want. The big question is, of course, will he be able to fulfill?"

Summing up the interview Martin said, "Though I hate to lose, of course, I'm glad the campaign is finished. Now I can get back to my studies. It's all over and thanks," he said.

—and all three times the Ohioian has gone to a victory. His last win was by a 400,000 majority for the senatorship of Ohio.

Rusk said, "Mr. Taft will give the taxpayer his money's worth and will not be free and easy with the dollar—yet his record shows he is more progressive than many GOP members."

Rusk added, "I believe Mr. Taft's character is unassailable. His integrity is on the highest plane. He is a Christian gentleman, a devoted husband and a splendid father to his four sons. The students here have made no mistake," Rusk said.

Chairman To Be Honored Both Rusk and Martin will be honored guests at the annual

Amid Throng Rusk Shouts, "We Did It!"

BY BILL BELL

GOP chairman Don Rusk, amid a back slapping, hand shaking throng of Taft supporters, shouted, "We did it!"

The big St. Louis Republican, unable to control his happiness, smiled wanly at the crown of congratulators and called the Taft victory a "great win for all Americans."

After the mob had left, the GOP head, who had just climaxed a bitter four week struggle with Don Martin-led Democrats, relaxed and let reporters question him.

"I want to thank each voter separately, but that's impossible; so instead, let me take advantage of the newspaper coverage and give a hearty 'Thank you' to all Taft voters," he stated.

He also commented on the opposition's fair play and above board policy. "Despite a certain amount of unavoidable 'mud slinging,' the Truman forces conducted a good campaign and made it a very close race."

When asked what he thought won the election for the Republicans, Rusk stated, "I believe that there are five main things that made Mr. Taft the winner; and probably the most important was the fair and open mindedness of the voters. Then the work of our personal workers meant a lot. Also an invaluable aid was the work of the Republican committee; without their victory would have been impossible. Another deciding factor I think, was the work of the publicity department; especially the poster and literature boards. And finally, another part of our party planning program was a tremendous help; the entertainment personnel."

Rusk named four events as principle factors in the stimulation of voters. Those were the Tea for Taft, the GOP rally, the personal work, and the distribution of pro-Taft pamphlets.

The party head also commended the individual committee members. "Without the work of Elleen Snure, Lloyd Bush, Ken Childs, Mary Ann Whitaker, Eldon Billingsly, and Bill Summitt, the Taft win would be a dream."

"I think that the election is one of the most popular and educational events that has ever happened on the Harding campus," Rusk stated. "I only hope that we will take as active a part in the national election as we did in the campus vote."

Bison banquet this spring along with Bison All-Star Basketball captains, Editor Kathy Cone said,

Thanks To A Civic Minded Faculty

While teaching is one of the highest of all professions, we have all, at sometime or another, known teachers who were interested only in their own schools subjects, and when caught outside their fields, were at a complete loss. But here at Harding, we can consider ourselves very lucky for having such a broad faculty. So very many of our teachers are quite interested in civic, state, and national affairs and contribute freely of their time and knowledge in different fields.

Dr. Benson is, of course, the first example of this. A nationally renowned lecturer and economist, he reflects credit on Harding in all points of the U. S. and contributes toward preserving free enterprise in America.

But this public mindedness does not stop with the president of our school. It extends throughout the faculty. Until the first of this year, Harding professors served as president of both Searcy civic clubs. Dr. Summitt retired as Kiwanis president at that time and Dr. Jack Wood Sears is now serving as Lions Club president. Dean Sears has always been active in Kiwanis work and serves on an international committee on education of that organization. Doctors Pryor and Sears are active in state science associations, Dr. Boucher is prominent in civic affairs, and on through the faculty. This is true among faculty wives also, who are active in women's clubs, P.T.A. and so on.

Although the town and state profit from this interest and activity, we, as students, profit also. For naturally our instructors become broader from all this work, extended their interest to many fields, and this passes on to us. The Bison believes that our faculty should be strongly commended for its broadness and farsightedness in this matter and we are thankful that we can receive the benefits and lessons of a civic minded and unselfish faculty.

We Enjoy Watching Bulldozers

Harding students have had a field day this past week indulging in that favorite pastime of man—watching bulldozers and steam shovels at work. In spite of the fact that next week is test week, we have observed little clusters of students standing with their noses glued to the student center windows at almost any time. And with good reason too, for almost under our noses, a campus is changing shape. Who could help but be interested in watching whole side walks being ripped up and pushed along in front of the bright yellow bulldozer. And the little cedar tree that until Tuesday stood in front of the student center, suddenly uprooted and pushed effortless up to the edge of the roadway.

We wonder why mankind has always been so interested in watching this work. Maybe it provides an outlet for man's destructive instinct that psychologists are always speaking about. Maybe we like to see construction and progress in action. Or maybe it is just watching machinery.

Whatever the reason, we're glad that we can watch this fascinating procedure without having to stir from our coffee cups. And in spite of other attractions we'll continue to watch as long as they continue to "tear up the earth."

Campus Face Lifting Nearly Completed

A finely woven purpose seems to finally be emerging from the chaos and rubble that has been our campus these past few months. Boardwalks are no longer the fashion and fad, but rather nice, new, shiny sidewalks are predominating the scene.

These sidewalks are welcome additions to many, for the remains of the old sidewalks in their broken and dishelved condition have been the cause of not a few accidents recently. Bungled up knees and scowling faces bear mute testimony to the toll taken by these hazards.

The area in front of the student center and new auditorium has undergone somewhat of a face lifting, also. It has been leveled and graded with what seems to be reasonable intelligence, but the purpose of doing it at this time hasn't come to light yet. We do know this—something is happening.

With the controversy over whether or not to have drives on the campus settled—in the negative—we can now start planning our campus of the future. It appears a lot of forethought has been given the problem and the best decision reached.

In a situation such as ours it is a little hard to have drives cutting through the grounds without having them dwarf and mock the size of our campus.

Following through on the conclusion reached, we can have a beautifully landscaped campus without actually sacrificing convenience by having ample parking space directly off the grounds and close access to all buildings with the exception of the library.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS

Harry Truman: These primary elections don't amount to a hill of beans. —By HERB DEAN.

TRIO MUSIC ART DRAMA.

By MEREDITH THOM

On exhibit in the Student Center, is the one man show of Freeman Thomas. There should be one of his works that you especially like, since various trends are represented in painting, along with his prize winning sculpture of "The Game." Plans are forming for future exhibits of a similar nature.

Perhaps you have seen a reproduction of Rembrandt's "Portrait of Titus" and wonder who the young man was. Rembrandt had gone through eight happy and prosperous years, receiving commissions for many pictures from all over Holland, when Vrouw Saskia, his wife, died. She left him with a dejected spirit and a nine months old baby boy, named Titus. The son proved helpful to his father and as a result we have some beautiful paintings of light and shadow.

Professor Robert spoke last Saturday evening as guest lecturer at the A tempo tea. Among those present were members of A tempo and their guests, art majors. In this lecture, Mr. Roberts, explained the close relationship between all of the fine arts with their problems of arrangement. Miss Eileen Snure will speak at a future lecture tea.

Tonight at seven thirty, see "Sky-Fodder" and "Minor Miracle" in the high school auditorium!

Prepare the torches! On February second and third Ray Wright, the Connecticut Yankee, will be sentenced to be burned at the stake. While we are watching the completion of the new auditorium, the cast of "A Connecticut Yankee In King Arthur's Court" is working on "the play before the play" that will be the first presented in the new auditorium, we hope. The play has been calculated to keep you in stitches.

The true patron of the theatre is not Thespis—the first playwright-producer-actor—but that personification of the audience, "The Deaf Old Lady in the Back Row." It is for her that we produce our plays. Her interest and her financial support make our whole theatre possible. Of course, this mythical personage is not always old and is not always a lady—though it is always safe to assume that she is a little deaf. There are few theatrical problems which you cannot solve if you will ask yourself, "How should I handle this so that it may be most easily heard, seen, and appreciated by the Deaf Old Lady in the Back Row?"

Strictly Collegiate

By SHIRLEY SUDDERTH

Personality is a word that is used often today. About the first thing mentioned when a person is being described is that he either "does" or "does not" have a good personality.

It is often said, "He (or she) just doesn't have what it takes." This may mean several things; It probably means that he lacks the ability to express his thoughts pleasantly and clearly.

Embarrassment is sometimes unavoidable, but most of the time it can be eliminated if the "blunder" is left alone. It should be done away with as quickly and quietly as possible. Don't make too much of a mistake and it will go away! No one enjoys seeing another person miserable because of a mistake for it makes everyone uncomfortable.

If your company is going to be enjoyed, those people around you must feel comfortable and at ease too—not only for themselves, but they must feel sure of you.

Don't try too hard. Be your own natural self, and remember that you are as important to the world as those around you.

Respect the individuality in others, and you will find it much easier to have your own strange quirks overlooked.

Be sure that you don't set yourself up as an authority on anything of you really aren't. People can tell whether you know what you're talking about or not. Nothing is more despicable than the teller of tales that evidently are not true.

These are just a few suggestions for personality or personal improvement. Work on your personality, it's very important to you and to your success. Those about you are either going to profit by your personality, or suffer from it. Why not give the public a break?

With Other Schools

Two new courses have been added to the Physical Education curriculum at George Pepperdine College in Los Angeles, Calif. They are classes in Driver Education and Safety Education and are open to all students.

Also at George Pepperdine, an experimental educational tour abroad, as a survey course in history, is being planned for this summer. Taking students through Spain, Sicily, Italy, France, Switzerland, Germany, and the Western Mediterranean, the tour will last five weeks and give six credits to students participating.

The Great God Brown will be presented in February by the Rehearsal Club of Florence Teachers College in Florence, Ala. A Shakespearean comedy is scheduled to be presented in the spring quarter.

Course work at the University of Arkansas graduate center on the campus of Henderson State Teachers College in Arkadelphia will begin in February. Graduate classes in education courses will be offered in the evening and Saturday classes at a time to be announced later.

The Henderson College Masquers will present two one-act plays soon. They are "A Wedding" and "The Devil and Webster."

How Shall We Believe.....?

By CECIL MAY, JR.

"We think so because all other people think so;
Or because—or because—after all, we do think so;
Or because we were told so, and think we must think so;
Or because we once thought so, and think we still think so;
Or because, having thought so, we we do think so;

—Henry Sidgwick

... and it was a school boy who, according to Mark Twain, said, "Faith is believing what you know ain't so."

Many people believe in God purely because they do not have the mental energy to disbelieve. People who have been brought up by Christian parents and in a Christian environment, people who all their lives have been taught that there is a God, sometimes accept what they have been taught without thought or question and, like the people described by Mr. Sidgwick, "Think so because other people think so." This within itself is not necessarily bad, but could become so. The people of Samaria you remember, "Believed on him for the saying of the woman, who testified, 'He told me all that I ever did.'" But later it is recorded that "When he had stayed there two days, many more believed because of his word, and they said to the woman, 'It is no longer because of your words that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world.'"

The faith that Paul had when he said "I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me," the faith that David showed when he said, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want," the faith that Abraham manifested when "he arose and went"—that faith is not a second-hand one. It is a deep and abiding conviction that God is and that he works in our lives. It is the faith that the writer of Hebrews was defining when he said, "Faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." It is a faith born of personal acquaintance with Him.

We here at Harding College in this year 1952 can be personally acquainted with Him—just as much so as Peter, James, and John were. Through Bible reading and study we can learn much of his personality and all of his will. By the same medium we can become convinced that He has a personal interest in us.

He is present at every church service. If we will but put forward the necessary energy to be there with Him, we may get to know him better there. An excellent way to become more personally acquainted with Him is to become more like Him, to minister unto the poor and needy, to visit the sick and the fatherless and the widows, "For in as much as you have done it unto the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me."

It is only out of this intimate friendship alone with him and to talk with him about our troubles and our victories, our hopes and our fears, only then that we pass the "personal acquaintance" stage and become intimate friends. And it is only out of this intimate friendship that springs "the faith that will not shrink though pressed by every foe."

"Lord, give us such a faith as this; We'll taste, e'en here, the hallowed Bliss of an eternal home."

"For without faith it is impossible to please God."

Glimpses of Grade School JACKIE RHODES GRADE SEVEN

Mrs. Martin's room had charge of chapel last week. Last Wednesday Miss Eileen Snure came over and gave a dramatic program. She gave a reading dedicated to each room. The reading she gave the 7th and 8th was about a singer who thought she could sing and couldn't.

The reading she gave for the 5th and 6th was about a woman who lived in the slums of New York. She was sitting in the window calling to all her friends that passed. The 3rd and 4th grade reading was about an Irish woman whose husband had come home drunk. He had drunk up all the pay check and come home drunk. For the 1st and 2nd grades, she sang a song about a spinster who was saving things toward the day when she would get married. They were all stacked up in "her little bottom drawer".

For the Friday chapel Mrs. Martin's room gave a play. It was in connection with their Arkansas history. The mound builders, among the first people to inhabit Arkansas, were the theme of the play. One of the mound builder chiefs came back to life and they told him about Arkansas. They told him about the minerals, area, etc. To wind up the play, they had a sick dance. (The Indians used to dance around a sick man. It went on for a long time, depending on how long the sick man lasted.)

The swings from the old building have been set up. The smaller children are happy to get them.

There have been several children who have had chicken pox.

The Junior boys won over West Point last Tuesday night. The score was 24-11.

"HOW DO YOU LIKE THE IDEA OF NOT HAVING DRIVEWAYS ON THE NEW CAMPUS?"

Tootsie Phillips—"I didn't like it at first, but after Dr. Benson's description it sounds fine."

Andy Ritchie—"I'm awfully lazy. I hate it."

Ruby Todd—"I think the provisions that will be made for parking will eliminate the necessity for a driveway on the campus."

Bill Wilson—"I don't like it."

Shirley Pegan—"I think it's a wonderful idea not to have one."

Jack Davis—"I like it."

Dot Mashburn—"I think it will add to the beauty of the campus."

Wanda Farris—"I think it'll be all right if they provide adequate parking space and make it near enough so we won't have to carry our suitcases too far."

Janice Murdock—"I like the idea myself because I think the campus would be prettier."

Jack Purdom—"I don't like it myself because I think it would take the life away from the campus."

Bebe Daniels—"I like the one they have if they would make more parking space and take out the chug holes."

Grant Smith—"I think it's a wonderful idea. Our campus is entirely too small to be cut up with driveways."

Sue Chapman—"I think it would be terrible because it'd be too far to wag your luggage to transportation."

Joe Sponagle—"If there are conveniences otherwise I think it's fine."

Joan Smith—"The campus isn't big enough for a driveway. It messes up the trees."

Wanda Adair—"I think it'd be real pretty."

Walter Dale—"For most people I think it'd be a good idea, if they have enough parking space."

Janie McGuire—"Sounds just fine to me."

Barbara Cooper—"Fine if I can persuade Herb to carry my trunk."

Tea For Taft Sponsored By Republicans

The Emerald Room of Ganus Student Center was the scene Sunday afternoon, from 3 to 4, of a "tea for Taft," sponsored by the Republican party, for the women faculty members and students of Harding. As guests entered the door, they were given Taft tags on which they were to write their own names.

With Miss Wanda Farris acting as master of ceremonies, the program consisted of a monologue by Ruby Lee Ellis, two violin solos by Bill Summitt, accompanied at the piano by his mother, Mrs. W. K. Summitt, an interpretation of a French-Canadian poem by Mary Lou Johnson, a five-minute speech on the importance of one vote by Mary Ann Whitaker, songs by Johnny Brown on the ukelele, and a musical pantomime by Meredith Thom.

The tea table was covered with a cut-lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of snap dragons. Silver candlesticks and silver tea service also adorned the table. Refreshments were cookies, mints, tea, and punch. Those assisting with the serving were Mrs. Inez Pickens and Mrs. W. K. Summitt, Mrs. Perry Mason, Mrs. J. T. Cone and Miss Velma Davis.

Rendezvous Scene Of M. E. A. Banquet

The M. E. A. Social Club and their dates enjoyed an evening in the "Gay Nineties" January 26, at the Blue Room of the Rendezvous.

The tables were decorated with old fashioned dolls, and a center piece of red and white carnations blooming from the top of an old-fashioned hat. The nut cups were men's derby hats and the programs were women's bonnets.

A scene depicted a couple riding in a model-T touring car along a road bordered with grey stone fence, over grown with hollyhocks was reflected in the large mirror.

Entertainment consisted of songs and readings taken from the "Gay Nineties." Kenneth Childs, master of ceremonies, introduced the speaker, Andy T. Ritchie, Jr.

Those attending the banquet were: Mr. and Mrs. Andy T. Ritchie, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farmer; Vonda Gifford, Keith Stotts; Audrey McGuire, Glenn Olbright; Nadine Armstrong, Don Rusk; Joan Johnson, Martha Sue Davis; Ruth Carver, Charles Pittman; Dot Giddens, Nelson Matthews; Sylvia Hyche, Ralph Hartman; Nedra Vaughn, Earl Dee Baker; Carlene Williams, Johnny Brown; Carolyn Huggins, Jehiel Nossaman; Kathryn Privett; Billy Howell; Francis Crowe, Rodney Wald; Pauline Voyles, Ruby Todd; Christine Cole, Stanley Sayers.

Miss Eleanor Lenington To Wed Robert Manasco

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Lenington of Marietta, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Eleanor, to Robert Manasco, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Manasco of Palestine.

Miss Lenington attended Marietta High School, and later graduated from Parkersburg Business College, in Parkersburg, W. Va. She also was a student for a short time at David Lipscomb College in Nashville, Tenn. She is now employed as bookkeeper for the Memorial Hospital in Marietta.

Mr. Manasco, a senior at Harding, is majoring in social science and minoring in Bible and secondary education. He is a member of the Delta Iota social club and is business manager of the Petit Jean.

Wedding plans will be announced later.

Delta Iotas Have "Orchid" Banquet

Members of the Delta Iota social club and their guests attended the winter banquet given by the club at the Rendezvous last Friday night, Jan. 25. The theme chosen for the banquet was "Orchids in the Moonlight." Orchids used for decoration and corsages were flown in especially for the occasion from Honolulu. On the speakers' table, a centerpiece was formed by an orchid tree placed on a mirror. The room, which was dimly lighted, was decorated throughout with orchid bouquets similar to that on the large table. Tables for four were each centered with a miniature orchid bouquet.

On the menu were: tomato juice, moulded salad, parsley potatoes, baked turkey and dressing, green peas, relish bowl, ice cream with strawberries and cake, tea, and coffee.

Guest speaker for the evening was Dr. J. D. Bales, who is also the club sponsor.

A bouquet of red roses was presented to Miss Shirley Pegan, the club queen. Gifts from the president of the club were also presented to Ken Noland and Paul Magee, who was chosen as the most typical freshmen club members.

Members of the club and their dates were: Bob Manasco, Eleanor Lenington; Charles Coil, Juanita Walton; Ronald Kurtz, Dot Todd; Paul Magee, Norma Smith; Bob Eubanks, Corinne Russell; Jimmy Allen, Marilyn Allen; Charles Crawford, Peggy Bryant; Bill Fulk, Doris Harmon; Jim Rampton, Shirley Rampton; Kent Burgess, Billie Beth Burgess; Ken Noland, Miriam Draper; Bob Brown, Norma Crosby; Lee Miller, Mattie Lou Geer; Larry Crawford, Betty Murphy; Tom Nelson, Barbara Richards; Kazuo Kusano, Helen Maupin; Marion Baker, Marion Stephens; Ponder Wright, Wanda Adair; Jim Rheudasil, Peggy West; Tom Marshall, Judy Tate; Aldred Lee, Eudie Morris; Paul Hanna, LaVera Hanes; Joe Disch, Verna Vaughn; Lowell Blankenship, Joan Smith; Jim Noonan, Tootsie Phillips; Bob Stringfellow, Jean Darling; Bob Hampton, Ferna Dean Roller; Don Picket, Ileta Buchanan; Joe Sheffield, Corene Brown; Bob Sewell, Pat Carter; David Underwood, Myra Underwood.

Other guests were: Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stovall, Guthrie Dean, Rosemary Pledger, Glenn Boyd, and Shirley Pegan.

Birthday Party Fetes Miss Norma Jarrard

Miss Norma Jean Jarrard was entertained with a surprise birthday party by her roommate, Martha Sue Davis, Friday night, January 25. Assisting Martha Sue were Grace McReynolds, Barbara Richards, and Chris Cole.

Those present were: Christine Jones, Mary Blansett, Mary Etta Grady, Merle Garrett, Ann Brade, Kathryn Roberts, Joann Johnson, Barbara Richards, Chris Cole, Molly Bradke, Grace McReynolds, Alta Cheek, Jeanette Kee, Jeanny Majors, Nadine Smith, Marie Jenkins, the hostess, and the honoree.

Those present for the party other than Joyce were: Norma Lou Hamilton, Betty Mitchell, Betty Webb, Joyce Burt, Pat Rowe, Alice Straughn, Dot Mashburn, Vonda Gifford, Rita Nossaman, and Shirley Pegan.

The honoree received several lovely gifts. Refreshments consisted of chocolate cake and feed drinks.

CITIZENS ARE WAKING UP

The population of the United States may be on the verge of becoming politically active in a big way. Such a development is forecast in the flood of mail that has come in as a result of my suggestion in a recent column that on all election days in 1952—local, state and national—each eligible voter who actually votes be given a little red-white-and-blue tag to wear in his lapel. The idea received nationwide publicity, and people in every section of the country are writing me.

The League of Women Voters, of Yardley-Morrisville, Pa., report that they have tried out the "Tag Day" idea and have found it to be excellent stimulation for potential voters. The tags were used three weeks ago in a local election in Mountain Home, Ark; and in two parishes when Louisiana Democrats held a primary a few days later; and letters on my desk report that in both instances the tags, and attendant publicity, helped boost the percentage of eligible voters who went to the polls. The little tags bear the challenge: "I Have Voted! Have You?"

All Joining Hands
The mail expressing interest in the tag-for-voters idea comes from all kinds of organizations, groups and individuals—and they all express a determination to work for anything that will stir up the population to the importance of each individual citizen becoming an intelligent and regular voter. Already, a great many people in states from coast to coast are using the Harding College flannel-board presentation "The Power of Your Vote" in which the "Tag Day" project is proposed.

An official of Labor's League for Political Education (American Federation of Labor) writes that "This is a valuable work in which Labor's League for Political Education is also greatly interested." An official of the Boy Scouts of America writes: "For the Presidential elections this fall, we will organize a Get-Out-the-Vote campaign. Every Boy Scout in America will work on this organized plan to get all voters out. The plans for this great drive are now under way."

The Press Enlists
Paul Harvey, one of the nation's top radio and television commentators, is giving the "Tag Day" idea wide publicity on his American Broadcasting System coast-to-coast broadcasts. "Normally, I detest tag days," he says on his broadcasts, "But Harding College has come up with a tag day idea which I wholeheartedly approve. They would hand out a small red-white-and-blue shield at the voting place on election day. I hope the idea spreads fast. I hope there is never another election in the

The Americanism Committee of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce has adopted "The Power of Your Vote" presentation as part of the nationwide "Freedom Flame" project in which 1,800 local Jaycee groups are eligible to participate. The general manager of Everybody's Daily, largest Polish newspaper in America, published in Buffalo, writes: "As a publisher interested in seeing that 100 per cent of our readers vote in all political campaigns, would be interested in material... for promoting this program in newspapers."

In Our Hands
T. E. Johnson, managing editor, the Amarillo Globe-Times, reports: "I wore the tag Tuesday during a local election and it drew much comment. It would be our idea to sponsor 'Tag Day' on the various election days coming up this year." Orville Revelle, editor, Fort Lauderdale Daily News, writes: "We plan to sponsor your plan in this area." Mrs. Lucille U. Deetz, principal, Moffitt Heights Elementary School, Massillon, Ohio, says she desires "to use 'The Power of Your Vote' before Parent-Teacher Association groups."

Altogether the mail indicates an awakening. With corruption weakening the character of our government (and our nation), with the United States armies at war in Korea and girding for even a bigger

Welsh And Teutons Take Lead In Major League; Defeat Irish And Slavs In Thrillers

Three-Man Finish Disaster For Irish

BY BILL BELL
The all-victorious Welsh today dealt their British Isle buddies, the Irish, a 48-to-40 setback to halt the Greenies' march to the top rung of the Celtic League ladder.

Ireland's laddies were ahead all the way after a second quarter spurt; but the story changed when Ken Keiser left the floor at the close of the third stanza and Al Poteete also made his exit by way of fouls during the early stages of the last round.

During the latter part of the tilt, red hot Owen Olbricht, who's one-handers were deadly, spelled the difference. He wound up the day's activities with a 23 point total; 20 in the second half.

On the Irish ledger 6' 5" Harvey Starling poured in 17 points, with another 10 being contributed by Emil Menes.

Poteete hit a short pusher to give the Irishmen a jump-off lead of 2-0, but baskets by John Williams and Olbricht led the way for a 6-5 edge for the Welsh quint in the first round.

Starling and Keiser teamed to pull the eventual losers up to a half time 14-12 lead as they each kicked in with two buckets. Walt Nelms and Williams both chipped in with two-pointers to stay close to the rest time champs. At this time Keiser had four personals, Poteete three, and Brown three.

Despite their holding the narrow 24-22 lead they enjoyed at the end of the third stanza, the Greenies lost the services of Keiser, who'd just committed his fifth personal as the bell sounded. In this round the shooting of Menes and Welshman Olbricht stood out.

With Irish hopes sinking fast they jumped the game into a 32-32 tie with two and one-half minutes remaining. Then Olbricht threw in three one handers; but this was off set by Poteete's lay-up and Starling's hook shots from the circle. With the count 38-36 Poteete was ejected following his fifth foul. Then buckets came quick for both sides. Menes' fall away shots were matched by Nelms' lay-ups; Don Hick's fielders were equalled by Starling's two-pointers; but then Olbricht opened fire. His sizzling net strippers set up the final count and kept the Welsh record unblemished.

Wildcats Win Over West Point 46-to-42

Jan. 29—A Harding Wildcat third quarter lead of 14 points slimly withstood the last period efforts of Jay Vaughan and Company as a West Point rally fell short by four points and the 'Cats emerged as 46-42 victors tonight.

C. L. Cox poured in 23 points to lead the Scarlet and Grey team.

Storky Dave Rhodes swished two jump shots to start things off for the 'Cats but Bob Wilson matched them seconds later for the West Pointers.

Cox and Bob Plunkett each netted one and after one period the Academy was setting the pace at 13-10.

The third quarter saw Cox soak up 13 points to send the Wildcats out in front by a 14 point margin.

Harding's juniors quint racked up another victory as Mike Rhodes hit for eight points in the 21-17 win to lead the Wildkittens.

One Man's Opinion

BY AL POTEETE

WELSH MAKE THINGS HOT ON IRISH IN CELTIC LEAGUE.

The Welsh and Irish met yesterday and declared an undisputed leader in the Celtic League. It was a rough affair with plenty of head-locking both ways, but the Irish seem to have received the rough side of the deal. Before the end of the end of the game the Irish were playing with only three men, yet the Welsh could only manage to win by a 48-to-40 score.

Apparently Mr. Berryhill plans to clean up the sport of basketball, since he and his reffing mate called a total of four technical fouls for, as he would put it, "broadcasting when they should be receiving." All this we go along with and hope that it doesn't stop on this one game.

The Irish moved into the game with their hopes riding high but a new addition to their team, Mr. Green, failed to show up for the elbow-sling affair, and this may well have spelled the difference between win and lose for the Irish.

Owen Olbricht was the boy that gave the Irish all the trouble as he hit the cords for 23 points and was in there to get most of the rebounds over "Big" Harv Starling.

In the Magyar league it was the Teutons all the way on the first round, rolling up three straight victories, and just before their last game Kenny Perrin was added to their list of players. This makes the Teutons seem almost like a cinch for the Magyar league honors but J. C. Roe and Company still have a good chance of pulling something out of the bag along with the Slavs who went down to the teutons 49-29 in their last game.

Somehow the Danes in the Celtic league seem to be coming along since their first game, when they fell to the Irish. In their next game they bounced back to be beaten by the league leading Welsh one point in an overtime, and then they rolled over the Scots by a considerable margin.

WITH THE MINORS.

Down in the minor league the Royals seem to be having things the way they want them. So far they have played two games and both times the score looked like a onesided telephone number. The Royals' only worry now is the loss of Bob Duncan who became eligible for the regular high school team this week and immediately got the transfer.

The loss of Duncan on one hand could spell disaster for the Royals' only worry now is the loss of Bob Duncan who became what they have been looking for to produce that continuously winning team.

Paul Osborn's five look like a second best in the Minors although they lost to the Royals in their last tilt 55-31.

TOURNAMENT SUCCESSES

Harding Academy failed to go far in the invitational tournament held here last week, but things went off in good spirit.

The Wildcats just couldn't seem to get rolling in their only game, against Bradford, and the junior boys had too much height against them when they met Rose Bud in their only game.

C. L. Cox for the Academy at least did something for himself by gaining a place on the all-tournament team.

ALL IN A WEEK.

Harv Starling moves farther ahead as the leading point maker in the Celtic by pushing his total up to 75, for an average of 25 points per game. . . . Emil Menes holds the second spot with 51, but Owen Olbricht is closing in as he moved his total up to 50. . . . Walter Nelms refuses to be counted out as he racks up 12 points against the Irish to stay in the number four spot. . . .

In the Magyar league it is Herman Spurlock that is setting the pace with 41 points, which is a tie with the fifth ranking man in the Celtic, designating perhaps that the Magyar stressed more defense than the Celts. . . . J. C. Roe came in second with 40. . . . And Ray Wright holds the third spot with 35. . . .

Quotable: Dixie Walker, manager of the Atlanta baseball Crackers—"We of the Atlanta club are shooting for a first place ball club in 1952."

Kentucky hits the top in basketball rankings again. . . . Kansas takes second defeat at the hands of the Oklahoma Aggies. . . . The Texas pro gridgers are asking an average of only 25,000 fans from their area of over a million people, whereas the Green Bay Packers have an average of 25,000 from their area of 50,000 people.

Perrin and Olree Lead Teuton Win

BY DON RUSK

January 29. This afternoon two undefeated Magyar league teams, Steve Todd's Teutons and Lehman Hall's Slavs, met in a fight to the finish which resulted in the disastrous defeat of the Slavs, 49-to-29.

By the time the Slavs got hot, they were trailing far behind. Charlie Coll started the scoring for the Teutons with a free toss when Don Johnson tried to crawl up his back. Todd scored three points with a basket and free throw, Ray Wright in a lay up shot, and Charlie made a free throw leaving the score, 7-0, in favor of the Teutons. Lehman Hall then sank a hook shot and the quarter ended, 7-2 Teutons.

The Teutons again began to run away from the Slavs during the second Quarter. Kenny Perrin, a valuable new addition to the Teutons, started the period with a very smooth push shot. Charlie Olree sank two quick baskets, Wright was fouled and sank two free throws, and Joe Mattox sent the ball swirling through the hoop to run the score to a lop-sided, 17 to 2 count.

The third period found the Slavs finally able to hold their own as each side scored twelve points, but again in the fourth period they were badly outscored as the Teutons racked 15 points. When the final gun went off the Teutons had a twenty point victory, 49 to 29.

The unbeaten Teutons from all appearances are now well on their way to the Magyar league championship. The addition of Perrin makes them the tallest, smoothest team in the league.

Perrin, who shared scoring honors for the winners with Olree, displayed a catlike grace as he effortlessly demonstrated smooth scoring and ball handling ability. Perrin and Olree had 14 points each.

Lehman Hall of the losers was the games high scorer as he

Not only were the Teutons hot on the field, but they were also hot at the free throw line. The Teutons hit 11 out of 17 free throws, while the Slavs hit only five out of 18. Ray Wright made five out of five free throws which along with two baskets gave him nine points.

Duncan Hits For 22 To Lead Royals To Second Win 55-31

Jan. 25—The Royals were rolling again today as Bob Duncan dumped in 22 points to lead them to a 55-to-31 victory over the Bullets, in a wild scoring, one sided affair that saw the Royals leading at the end of the first period.

Bob Tuttleton led the way in the Royals 15 point uprise in the opening quarter with seven points and Duncan counted for six. Paul Moore was the only man to ring the bell for the bullets in the first period with a charity toss.

In the second quarter the Royals hit the cords for another 16 points led by Duncan and Freddy Massey, while the Bullets collected eight with Paul Osborn netting six of them.

The Bullets got things in reverse in the third period, as they scored 13 counters to the Royals nine. Osborn was again responsible for the uprise, ringing the bell for seven more points, and then he added four more in the final stanza to bring his total to 17 for the afternoon.

The final period was only a matter of waiting for the time for the buzzer to sound to end the game, although the Royals kept racking up the score as they added 15 points to the Bullets nine.

Tuttleton tied with Osborn for second place scoring honors with 17, while Duncan was the rebound king on both boards.

Strong Kensett Five Wins 47-37 In Finals Of Invitation Tourney Beebe Wins Junior Bracket 16-15

Jan. 28—A fast Kensett quint ran headlong over Bradford's hardwood boys 47-to-37 tonight to take the first place trophy in Harding's first invitational basketball tournament.

Previous to this, Kensett, led by willowy C. Batman, had stomped a West Point five 50-14. Batman, who handles the ball with the greatest of ease, bucketed 20 points in that affair and in tonight's tilt he poured in 16 markers and played an outstanding defensive game.

The Beebe juniors came out on top to take the juniors crown with a close 16-15 victory over Kensett. The Beebe boys, before reaching the finals had knocked over Griffithville Friday night 29-19. Then the following night in a three minute overtime they eeked out a 29-24 victory over Rose Bud.

Bradford's senior quint, led by James Falwell, in Saturday nights battle ran over the Harding Wildcats 41-23 to reach a chance at the trophy.
